*Please note that these T's & C's apply to current students only

The Agreement is divided into three parts:

PART 1: IIS GPISH Scholarship Terms and Conditions

PART 2: General Student Information

PART 3: Student Consent and Acceptance of Terms

Recipient's responsibility to ensure that the IIS holds up-to-date account details. In the event his/her studies within six years of commencement. Failure to complete the Graduate Programme within three academic years (whether continuous or cumulative) will not lead to any extension of the Scholarship, even in the presence of extenuating circumstances. The IIS will not at any point be responsible for any costs associated with deferral or interruption (including but not limited to flights, visas and IELTS or other accepted Academic English language skills test, where applicable).

5. It is the Recipient's responsibility to secure admission to a Master's programme approved by the Institute at a UK higher education institution for their third year and to fulfil all admissions criteria of the relevant UK Un-37.30 (n-37.30).10 (l)41 EMC/P <</MCID 8 >> BDC (i)41.40 (o)37 (n)45.40 ( )28.80 (f)4 (t)43.(a)4n 30 (a)41 ( paid (voluntarily or where the Scholarship is deemed to be withdrawn under these Terms and Conditions, or otherwise terminated in accordance with these Terms and Conditions), the IIS has the discretionary right to seek appropriate redress for any portion of the Scholarship paid out to the Recipient and/or indefinitely withhold any further payments otherwise due to the Recipient.

4. In any of the above cases, when the Scholarship is withdrawn or terminates early, the Recipient may receive an overpayment, for instance when the IIS is unable to cancel an upcoming payment, or when a change of circumstances leading to interruption or withdrawal occurs shortly after a payment has been made. In the event of an overpayment the Recipient may be required to repay all overpaid amounts within three months following direct invoice by the IIS. The IIS also reserves the right to deduct any overpayment from any sum at that time due to the Recipient. The reimbursement of overpayments may be waived, at the sole discretion of the IIS, under exceptional circumstances to be ascertained by a review conducted by the relevant committee of the IIS.
5. The responsibility of the IIS in this agreement is limited to providing the necessary support
